Summary:

---

Chloe joined chambers in September 2020 following successful completion of pupillage under the supervision of Sarah Blackmore. Chloe accepts instructions in all areas of Children Law.

Chloe regularly appears in public and private children matters and has experience in representing Local Authorities, parents, children and interveners in a range of hearings, including interim removal hearings, multi-day fact finding hearings and final hearings. She has advised and represented parties on cases involving the following issues:

- â€¢ Non-accidental injuries
- â€¢ Neglect
- â€¢ Sexual abuse
- â€¢ Domestic abuse
- â€¢ Substance misuse
- â€¢ Clients with learning difficulties / capacity issues
- â€¢ Jurisdictional issues
- â€¢ Psychological and psychiatric evidence

Chloe is approachable and builds rapport quickly with both lay and professional clients. She has a particular interest in representing vulnerable clients and children.

Coming from a Northern working-class background herself, Chloe is keen to promote wider access and diversity to the legal profession for young people from disadvantaged backgrounds and is a member of both the North Eastern Circuit's Diversity Outreach programme and Young Legal Aid Lawyers.

She also has a strong commitment to Access to Justice and pro bono work and regularly takes on cases through the charity Advocate.
