About:

Originally practicing from Chambers in London, Andrea joins Spire Barristers from the 4th May 2021 and practises predominantly in the area of Family Law.Â

Andrea is an experienced and tenacious advocate, particularly adept at interacting with young and vulnerable clients and witnesses.

Andrea has considerable experience of clients with difficulties such as longstanding mental health and substance abuse problems.

Having substantial prior experience in criminal practice, Andrea has a natural grasp for cases involving highly emotive allegations including serious injury or sexual abuse of children.

Andrea has been commended as an advocate for demonstrating sensitivity in dealing with young and vulnerable witnesses while remaining forthright in pursuing her client's case.

Andrea is a proactive advocate able to navigate cases involving voluminous documentary evidence and explain complex issues in a relatable manner, making her popular with her clients and instructing solicitors alike.
